

Name: _____ Date: _____

Puzzles of Power: Peerless Parliamentary and Presidential 7th Grade Quiz

Examine how global leaders juggle power through coalition-building and executive checks in this complex analysis of modern governance.

---

1. In the Japanese political system, the National Diet (legislature) selects the Prime Minister from among its own members. This fusion of power is a hallmark of which system?

- A. Semi-Presidential
- B. Parliamentary
- C. Absolute Monarchy
- D. Confederal

2. Mexico operates under a system where the President serves as both the Head of State and Head of Government, holding authority independent of the legislature. This is known as a _____ system.

- A. Presidential
- B. Unitary
- C. Totalitarian
- D. Direct Democracy

3. True or False: In a purely Unitary system, like that of the Republic of Korea (South Korea), the national government has the legal authority to create or abolish local administrative divisions.

- A. True
- B. False

4. Imagine a country where the military holds supreme authority and suspends the constitution to maintain order. Which term best evaluates this specific form of authoritarianism?

- A. Constitutional Monarchy
- B. Military Junta
- C. Theocracy
- D. Pluralism

5. India's government divides specific responsibilities, such as defense and law enforcement, between the central government in New Delhi and individual state governments. This structure is _____.

- A. Autocratic
- B. Unitary
- C. Federal
- D. Anarchic

6. True or False: In a Parliamentary system, if the legislature passes a 'Vote of No Confidence,' the Prime Minister is typically forced to resign or call for new elections.

- A. True

Name: _____ Date: _____

B. False

7. In Iran, the Supreme Leader holds final authority over government policy and must be a religious cleric. This system, where religious law and personnel dominate, is termed a:

- A. Meritocracy
- B. Oligarchy
- C. Theocracy
- D. Socialist Republic

8. When several political parties in a parliamentary system (like those in Israel or Italy) join together to form a majority and govern, they have formed a _____.

- A. Coalition
- B. Monopoly
- C. Dictatorship
- D. Caucus

9. In Ethiopia's ethnic federalism, regional boundaries are drawn based on cultural and linguistic groups. What is the primary instructional goal of this specific power-sharing arrangement?

- A. To centralize all power in the capital city
- B. To provide autonomy to diverse groups to prevent conflict
- C. To eliminate the need for a national constitution
- D. To establish a hereditary monarchy

10. True or False: In most modern Constitutional Monarchies, such as Norway or Sweden, the King or Queen holds the actual power to write laws and command the daily operations of the military.

- A. True
- B. False