

Name: _____ Date: _____

Lexical Architecture: A College Level Morphology Blueprint

Can you identify the foundational structures of academic English? Exercise recall and basic comprehension of Latinate and Greek morphemes found in scholarly texts.

---

1. In the context of jurisprudence, the root word 'jur' (as seen in 'perjury' or 'jurisdiction') most nearly means:

- A. To judge
- B. Law or oath
- C. Crime
- D. To speak

2. The prefix 'ante-' in the word 'antebellum' indicates that the period occurred _____ the war.

- A. Against
- B. During
- C. Before
- D. After

3. The suffix '-ism' is typically used to transform a root into a noun denoting a system of belief, theory, or practice.

- A. True
- B. False

4. Which of the following Greek roots refers specifically to 'mankind' or 'humanity'?

- A. Bio
- B. Ethno
- C. Anthro
- D. Demo

5. A student of geology knows that the root 'lith' (as in 'lithosphere' or 'monolith') refers to _____.

- A. Stone
- B. Earth
- C. Pressure
- D. Heat

6. The prefix 'pseudo-' (as in 'pseudonym') means 'false' or 'deceptive.'

- A. True
- B. False

7. The suffix '-ous' (as in 'tenacious' or 'voracious') functions to turn a word into which part of speech?

- A. Adverb

Name: _____ Date: _____

- B. Verb
- C. Noun
- D. Adjective

8. If 'path' refers to feeling or disease, the prefix 'a-' (as in 'apathy') communicates a _____ of that feeling.

- A. Reversal
- B. Lack or absence
- C. Superiority
- D. Intensity

9. The root 'phil' in words like 'philanthropy' or 'philosophy' means 'knowledge.'

- A. True
- B. False

10. In the term 'interdisciplinary,' the prefix 'inter-' suggests the relationship between fields is:

- A. Within a single focus
- B. Against each other
- C. Between or among
- D. To remove a focus