1. Which intellectual movement provided the foundational 'Natural Rights' philosophy that justified colonial resistance against the British Monarchy?

Answer: B) The Enlightenment

Thinkers like John Locke argued that all people have rights to life and liberty, which heavily influenced leaders like Thomas Jefferson.

2. True or False: The Proclamation of 1763 was a primary source of tension because it banned colonial settlement west of the Appalachian Mountains.

Answer: A) True

Colonists felt they had earned the right to expand after the French and Indian War, and this restriction was seen as an act of British tyranny.

3. During the war, the _____ acted as a de facto national government, managing the war effort and eventually appointing a committee to draft a formal break from Britain.

Answer: C) Second Continental Congress

The Second Continental Congress moved from petitioning the King for peace to managing the entire revolutionary military and political strategy.

4. How did the role of women, such as the 'Daughters of Liberty,' directly impact the economic rebellion against the British government?

Answer: B) They organized boycotts and manufactured homespun cloth to replace British imports.

Economic warfare through boycotts was essential to the revolution, and women led the effort to make the colonies self-sufficient.

5. True or False: Native American tribes were unanimous in their decision to support the British during the conflict.

Answer: B) False

Name: _____ Date: _____

Tribes were divided; for example, the Oneida supported the Americans, while the Mohawk largely supported the British.

6. What was the specific intended purpose of the 'Olive Branch Petition' sent to King George III in 1775?

Answer: B) To offer a final attempt at reconciliation and avoid full-scale war

Even after fighting began, moderate colonists hoped to fix their relationship with Britain, though the King rejected the petition.

7. The _____ was a secret network organized by Benjamin Tallmadge that provided George Washington with critical intelligence about British movements in New York City.

Answer: A) Culper Spy Ring

The Culper Spy Ring used invisible ink and codes to provide the Continental Army with a strategic advantage in intelligence.

8. What was a major disadvantage faced by the British military despite having the world's most powerful navy and army?

Answer: C) Long supply lines and communication delays across the Atlantic Ocean

Sending orders and supplies from London to America took months, making it difficult for the British to react to sudden colonial shifts.

9. True or False: The 1783 Treaty of Paris established the Mississippi River as the western boundary of the new United States.

Answer: A) True

This treaty significantly doubled the size of the original colonies, giving the new nation vast wilderness territory to the west.

10. The pamphlet 'Common Sense' was written by _____ to argue that it was logically absurd for a small island to rule over a massive continent.

Answer: B) Thomas Paine

Paine's plain-language arguments reached thousands of colonists and shifted public opinion toward independence.
