

Name: _____ Date: _____

Wrangle the Fairway: 3rd Grade Political Philosophy Quiz

Evaluate fairness and leadership by applying core concepts to classroom scenarios and community rules using this mixed-format assessment.

1. Imagine your class is creating a 'Class Constitution.' If the class decides that everyone must follow the rules they all agreed on, what are they practicing?

- A. The Rule of Law
- B. The Rule of the Tallest Student
- C. The Rule of No Rules
- D. The Rule of the Teacher Only

2. In a direct democracy, every single citizen gets to vote on every law themselves instead of picking a leader to do it for them.

- A. True
- B. False

3. If a town builds a wheelchair ramp at the park so every child can play, which political idea are they focusing on?

- A. Profit
- B. Competition
- C. Equal Access
- D. Secrets

4. When people move into a community and agree to follow its rules in exchange for protection, they are making a ____.

- A. Secret Handshake
- B. Social Contract
- C. Shopping List
- D. Birthday Card

5. Being a 'good citizen' only means following laws; it does not involve helping your neighbors or volunteering.

- A. True
- B. False

6. In the Haudenosaunee Confederacy (The Iroquois), leaders had to think about how their choices would affect people 7 generations in the future. This is called:

- A. The Quick Decision
- B. The Great Law of Peace
- C. Individual Freedom

Name: _____ Date: _____

D. The Power of One

7. A system where a King or Queen rules a country through their family line is known as a ____.

- A. Monarchy
- B. Science Club
- C. Bakery
- D. Anarchy

8. Which of these is a 'Natural Right' that many philosophers believe every human is born with?

- A. The right to a new bicycle
- B. The right to have no homework
- C. The right to liberty (freedom)
- D. The right to eat candy for dinner

9. Justice always means giving every single person the exact same thing, even if they have different needs.

- A. True
- B. False

10. If a community believes and acts as if the 'Common Good' is most important, they are focusing on ____.

- A. What is best for the group
- B. What is best for one person
- C. The fastest person in town
- D. The person with the most money