

Name: _____ Date: _____

Answer Key: A Picnic with the Presidents: Kindergarten Early Republic Quiz

Help the Founding Fathers invite new friends to the party by sorting rules and identifying the symbols of our first national team.

---

1. The Constitution is a special book of rules for our country. Who did the leaders say these rules were for?

Answer: B) We the People

The Constitution starts with the words 'We the People' to show that the government is made to help everyone living in the country.

2. Benjamin Franklin wanted a turkey to be the national bird, but the leaders chose the Bald Eagle instead.

Answer: A) True

During the early years of our country, leaders had to choose symbols like the Bald Eagle to represent strength and freedom.

3. When our country was brand new, the leaders met in a big city called _____ to write the rules.

Answer: A) Philadelphia

Philadelphia was the city where the Constitutional Convention took place to create the framework for the U.S. government.

4. John Adams was our second President. What is one job a President does to help the country?

Answer: C) Leading the country

The President is the leader of the country, a role created by the Constitution to help everyone follow the rules together.

5. The Bill of Rights is a list of promises that says people have the right to speak their minds.

Answer: A) True

Name: _____ Date: _____

The Bill of Rights was added to the Constitution to make sure individual freedoms, like talking and sharing ideas, were protected.

6. The Liberty Bell in Philadelphia has a big _____ in it, reminding us of the early days of our nation.

Answer: D) Crack

The Liberty Bell is a famous symbol from the early republic known for its large crack.

7. If you wanted to help a friend follow a new rule at school, you are acting like a delegate. What is a delegate?

Answer: B) A person chosen to speak for others

Delegates were the people from different states who were sent to the convention to speak for the people living there.

8. The very first American flag had 50 stars just like the flag we have today.

Answer: B) False

The first flags had fewer stars because there were only 13 states at the beginning of the Early Republic.

9. In the Early Republic, leaders like Thomas Jefferson and Alexander Hamilton sometimes disagreed. How did they solve their problems?

Answer: C) By talking and voting

The Constitution set up a system where leaders count votes and talk through issues to make decisions together.

10. Abigail Adams was a smart leader who reminded her husband to 'Remember the _____' when making new laws.

Answer: B) Ladies

Abigail Adams wrote letters to her husband John Adams to make sure the rights of women were considered in the new government.