

Name: _____ Date: _____

A Picnic with the Presidents: Kindergarten Early Republic Quiz

Help the Founding Fathers invite new friends to the party by sorting rules and identifying the symbols of our first national team.

1. The Constitution is a special book of rules for our country. Who did the leaders say these rules were for?

- A. The Birds and Bees
- B. We the People
- C. Only the Kings
- D. The Moon and Stars

2. Benjamin Franklin wanted a turkey to be the national bird, but the leaders chose the Bald Eagle instead.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When our country was brand new, the leaders met in a big city called _____ to write the rules.

- A. Philadelphia
- B. The North Pole
- C. Outer Space
- D. The Beach

4. John Adams was our second President. What is one job a President does to help the country?

- A. Taking a long nap
- B. Eating all the cookies
- C. Leading the country
- D. Hiding the toys

5. The Bill of Rights is a list of promises that says people have the right to speak their minds.

- A. True
- B. False

6. The Liberty Bell in Philadelphia has a big _____ in it, reminding us of the early days of our nation.

- A. Blue stripe
- B. Golden key
- C. Polka dot
- D. Crack

7. If you wanted to help a friend follow a new rule at school, you are acting like a delegate. What is a delegate?

Name: _____ Date: _____

- A. A type of sandwich
- B. A person chosen to speak for others
- C. A very fast car
- D. A loud musical instrument

8. The very first American flag had 50 stars just like the flag we have today.

- A. True
- B. False

9. In the Early Republic, leaders like Thomas Jefferson and Alexander Hamilton sometimes disagreed. How did they solve their problems?

- A. By wrestling
- B. By moving to a different planet
- C. By talking and voting
- D. By ignoring each other

10. Abigail Adams was a smart leader who reminded her husband to 'Remember the _____' when making new laws.

- A. Dinosaurs
- B. Ladies
- C. Snowmen
- D. Puppies