

Name: _____ Date: _____

Clear or Blurred? Decode Daily Talk with this 6th Grade Social Signals Quiz!

Master the art of tone, context, and non-verbal cues in this Everyday Communication Quiz designed to boost social intelligence for 6th grade students.

1. You are working on a group project and a teammate says, 'Oh, great! Another page of instructions.' with a heavy sigh and a frown. What is the most likely meaning behind their message?

- A. They are excited to learn more details about the project.
- B. They are being sarcastic and feel overwhelmed by the workload.
- C. They are practicing their reading skills for the next class.
- D. They are giving a compliment to the teacher for the clarity.

2. Which of these scenarios demonstrates the most 'active listening' when a friend is sharing a story about their weekend?

- A. Checking your watch frequently to ensure you aren't late for your next class.
- B. Thinking about what you are going to say as soon as they stop talking.
- C. Maintaining eye contact and nodding while they explain what happened.
- D. Interrupting to tell them about a similar thing that happened to you.

3. In a formal email to a teacher asking for help on an assignment, which closing is most appropriate for a 6th grade student to use?

- A. See ya later!
- B. Thanks anyway,
- C. Sincerely, [My Name]
- D. Sent from my iPhone

4. What is the primary difference between assertive and aggressive communication?

- A. Assertive communication is loud, while aggressive is quiet.
- B. Assertive communication respects both parties; aggressive communication ignores the other person's feelings.
- C. Assertive communication means you always give in to what others want.
- D. There is no difference; they both mean you are being a leader.

5. When presenting a digital slideshow to your class, why is it important to face the audience instead of looking only at the screen?

- A. To make sure no one is talking while you are presenting.
- B. To show the audience you are confident and to help your voice carry better.
- C. To see if the teacher is grading you on your eye contact.
- D. To block the screen so people have to listen to you instead of reading.