

Name: _____ Date: _____

Fairness on the Field: A First Grade Power and Rules Quiz

Who should get to use the big swing first? Analyze fairness and leadership through everyday playground scenarios and classroom choices.

1. If a new student joins our class, what is the fairest way to make them feel welcome?

- A. Tell them they cannot play with your toys
- B. Invite them to join the game and share the rules
- C. Ignore them until they find their own seat
- D. Give them all the broken crayons

2. True or False: A good leader is someone who listens to everyone, not just their best friends.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When we all agree to follow the classroom rules so we can have fun safely, we are acting like a ____.

- A. Mountain
- B. Statue
- C. Community
- D. Cloud

4. Imagine there is only one ball for 10 kids. What is the most 'just' or fair way to use it?

- A. The fastest runner keeps it the whole time
- B. The person who bought the ball takes it home
- C. Everyone takes a 2-minute turn
- D. Hide the ball so nobody can fight over it

5. True or False: Rules are only for kids; adults don't have to follow any rules.

- A. True
- B. False

6. If we get to choose our own library book, we are using our ____, which means being free to decide.

- A. Liberty
- B. Height
- C. Weight
- D. Sleepiness

7. Who is usually the 'authority' figure responsible for safety in a swimming pool?

- A. The person with the coolest goggles
- B. The lifeguard
- C. A friendly fish

Name: _____ Date: _____

D. The person who can splash the most

8. When the whole class votes on which movie to watch, we are using a system called ____.

- A. A secret
- B. Democracy
- C. A race
- D. A nap

9. True or False: If a rule is unfair, people can talk to their leaders to try and change it.

- A. True
- B. False

10. Why do we have a 'Line Leader' in 1st Grade?

- A. To show who has the loudest voice
- B. To help the group stay together and organized
- C. So one person can walk faster than everyone else
- D. To decide who gets to eat lunch