

Name: _____ Date: _____

Who Stole the Cookie? A Kindergarten Logic Adventure

Foundational reasoning skills come to life as young learners use pattern recognition and evidence to solve classroom mysteries and predict what happens next.

1. Every time Leo the Lion eats a lemon, he makes a sour face. Leo is eating a lemon right now. What will happen next?

- A. He will start to take a nap
- B. He will make a sour face
- C. He will turn blue
- D. He will start dancing

2. If you see wet footprints on the floor, it is impossible that someone with wet shoes walked there.

- A. True
- B. False

3. Maya wears her yellow boots every time it rains. It is raining outside. Maya will wear her _____ boots.

- A. Red
- B. Green
- C. Yellow
- D. Blue

4. Sam says, 'All circles are round. This shape is a square.' What can we know for sure?

- A. The square is a circle
- B. The square is round
- C. The square is not a circle
- D. The square is a triangle

5. Building a tower with big blocks on the bottom and small blocks on top makes it stronger than putting small blocks on the bottom.

- A. True
- B. False

6. If the blue box is bigger than the red box, and the red box is bigger than the green box, which box is the biggest?

- A. The green box
- B. The red box
- C. The blue box
- D. They are all the same

7. Usually, cows say 'Moo.' If you hear a 'Moo' coming from the barn, it is most likely a _____.

Name: _____ Date: _____

- A. Chicken
- B. Cow
- C. Pig
- D. Horse

8. If you want to stay dry in the bath, should you keep your shirt on or take it off?

- A. Keep it on (it will get wet)
- B. Take it off (and stay out of the water)
- C. Wear two shirts
- D. Put the shirt in the water

9. If a squirrel likes acorns, every animal in the forest must also like acorns.

- A. True
- B. False

10. A lunchbox has an apple and a banana. If you take out the apple, only the _____ is left inside.

- A. Grape
- B. Orange
- C. Banana
- D. Pear