

Name: _____ Date: _____

Pizza Party Plays: Performing Arts Analysis for 1st Grade

Students analyze dramatic components like costumes and scripts by identifying how story ingredients come together to make a theatrical masterpiece.

1. A play is a story built just for the stage. What do we call the book that tells the actors what to say?

- A. A coloring book
- B. A dictionary
- C. A script
- D. A map

2. In a play, the clothes that actors wear to look like their characters are called costumes.

- A. True
- B. False

3. The _____ of a play is the main message or 'big idea' the story is trying to teach us.

- A. Theme
- B. Crayon
- C. Shoes
- D. Table

4. If an actor is moving their body but not using any words to tell a story, they are using:

- A. Shouting
- B. Pantomime
- C. Sleeping
- D. Reading

5. Which person in a play is usually the one who wants something or is trying to solve a problem?

- A. The furniture
- B. The main character
- C. The audience
- D. The ticket taker

6. The setting of a play tells us 'where' and 'when' the story is happening.

- A. True
- B. False

7. When two characters talk to each other on stage, it is called a _____.

- A. Secret
- B. Monologue
- C. Dialogue

Name: _____ Date: _____

D. Whisper

8. The most exciting part of the play where the big problem is finally faced is called the:

- A. Nap time
- B. Beginning
- C. Climax
- D. Intermission

9. A play must always have a happy ending to be a story.

- A. True
- B. False

10. An ___ is a large section of a play, almost like a chapter in a book.

- A. Act
- B. App
- C. Ant
- D. Axe