

Name: _____ Date: _____

Clear Critical Reading Quiz for High School Seniors

Students distinguish verified facts from subjective perspectives using contemporary media examples to sharpen foundational analysis skills.

---

1. Which of the following statements about George Orwell's '1984' represents a verifiable fact rather than an opinion?

- A. The novel is the most terrifying depiction of a dystopia ever written.
- B. Orwell's prose style is too bleak for most modern readers to enjoy.
- C. The sentient surveillance entity in the book is known as Big Brother.
- D. The ending of the book is deeply unsatisfying and lacks hope.

2. True or False: If an author uses emotional language to describe a historical event, the text is automatically considered a collection of facts.

- A. True
- B. False

3. When a reader looks for the 'author's purpose,' they are trying to determine if the text is meant to _____, inform, or entertain.

- A. persuade
- B. confuse
- C. ignore
- D. summarize

4. In a documentary about the impact of social media, which source would be considered the most reliable for providing objective data?

- A. An interview with a teenager who feels addicted to their phone.
- B. A peer-reviewed psychological study on screen time and dopamine.
- C. A viral tweet from a celebrity criticizing app developers.
- D. A sponsored advertisement from a major smartphone manufacturer.

5. True or False: Identifying the 'target audience' of a speech helps a critical reader understand why the speaker chose specific words or examples.

- A. True
- B. False

6. A reader who notices that a news report only interviews people from one side of a protest is identifying _____.

- A. clarity
- B. bias
- C. rhythm

Name: _____ Date: _____

D. theology

7. Which of these is an example of an 'opinion' in a review of a new electric vehicle?

- A. The car can travel 300 miles on a single full charge.
- B. The interior features recycled polyester seating materials.
- C. The dashboard interface is frustrating and difficult to navigate.
- D. The vehicle was released in the North American market in June.

8. True or False: 'Critical reading' means finding as many negative things about a text as possible.

- A. True
- B. False

9. To evaluate a claim in an editorial, a reader must look for _____, such as statistics, expert testimony, or historical precedents.

- A. opinions
- B. fonts
- C. evidence
- D. adjectives

10. If a writer uses the phrase 'The candidate's plan is a bold leap into the future,' they are using _____ language to influence the reader.

- A. neutral
- B. scientific
- C. loaded
- D. mathematical