Answer Key: Your Playground Peace Treaty: A Pre-K Ethical Architect Quiz

Construct solutions for sharing toys and helping friends using multi-step moral reasoning to balance individual wants with group harmony.

1. Imagine you see a friend crying because they have no blocks. You have all the blocks. What is the BEST way to make the whole classroom happy?

Answer: B) Give them half your blocks so you can build together.

Sharing creates the most happiness for the most people, turning a sad situation into a fun group activity.

2. If the rule is 'hands to yourself,' it is okay to push a friend if they took your favorite crayon.

Answer: B) False

Following a rule (deontology) is important even when we are upset; we must find a kind way to solve the problem.

3. A person who is _____ will tell the teacher they accidentally spilled the juice, even if they are afraid of getting in trouble.

Answer: C) Honest

Honesty is a virtue, which means doing the right thing because it shows who you are inside.

4. You and your friend both want the red tricycle. There is only one. How can you solve this fairly?

Answer: C) Use a timer so you both get a turn for five minutes.

Creating a fair system ensures that everyone's rights are respected over time.

5. Being a good leader means you listen to what your friends need before making a choice.

Answer: A) True

Virtue ethics suggests that a good character includes being thoughtful and caring toward others.

6. When we think about what is _____ to everyone, we are helping our whole community stay happy.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Answer: A) Fair

Fairness is a core ethical concept that helps resolve dilemmas by balancing different people's needs.

7. A friend drops their lunch on the floor. You have two cookies. What is the 'Virtuous' or kindest thing to do?

Answer: B) Give them one of your cookies so they aren't hungry.

Generosity is a virtue that focuses on the character of the giver and the well-being of the friend.

8. It is always right to follow the rule 'Always clean up,' even if a friend needs help with a scraped knee right now.

Answer: B) False

Sometimes ethical dilemmas require us to choose the most important duty, like helping an injured person, over a smaller rule.

9. If you find a shiny sticker that belongs to someone else, the ____ thing to do is give it back.

Answer: B) Right

Doing what is 'right' follows the moral principle of respecting other people's things.

10. The class wants to play Tag, but one person cannot run fast. How can the class make the 'best' choice for everyone?

Answer: B) Play a different game like 'Hide and Seek' that everyone can do.

Choosing a game everyone can participate in maximizes the joy and fairness for the entire group.
